The International Harp Therapy Program will be holding its Regional Professional Development Gathering Conference in So. Burlington, Vermont. We focus this year on bridging, uniting and educating about the various modalities of therapeutic music. We invite you to join us for 2 days of exciting workshops. Among our featured speakers will be members of the Sound and Music Alliance speaking on cymatics, music therapy, sound healing and therapeutic music. Please continue to keep updated on our BLOG at:

HarpTherapyCampus.com/BLOG for particulars.

We begin on Saturday morning with workshops at the So. Burlington Middle School. Workshops on using your voice with accompaniment and presentations will be given by graduates and special guest speakers. A demonstration of the Rainbow of Sound program with children will be included. See how you can create a viable and rewarding career. There will be a workshop on a deeper look into resonance, sound healing, music therapy and new inspirations await you as you enjoy the Green Mountains!

Friday night concert featuring the dynamic duo - HarpSparks with Martha Gallagher and Tina Tourin at: All Saints Episcopal Church, 1250 Spear St. South Burlington, VT 05403-7407

Saturday evening we will join together in sharing harp music in a splendid harp circle. Bring your favorite song/story to share.

Our meals will be catered by the students of the "FARM SCHOOL" under the direction of Carol McQuillen. You can look forward to wholesome lunches and a catered evening meal on Saturday. Breakfast available at the hotel.

- We have room for 50 attendees so please sign up early. Registrations will close at 50.
- Costs: Weekend Tuition including catered meals and Friday ticket to the concert: $200.00. After June 1, 2011 - $225.00 if there are spaces available.
- Rooms available at the Green Mountain Suites - ask for the "IHTP Convergence" Block of rooms. Please use the BLOG to arrange roommates. If we run out of rooms then the Sheraton is also available.
- CEU credits. Attendance for IHTP graduates satisfy the bi-annual requirements set forth by the National Standards Board for Therapeutic Musicians. Attendance for other program graduates, please check with your administration.
